

PRICES BREAK UNDER STRAIN

Threatened Revolution in Russia Proves Disturbing Influence in All World's Markets.

RECOVERY NOT SUSTAINED

Dread of Unfavorable Developments Over Night Made Dealers Wary at Close of Day.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—A revolutionary aspect taken on by affairs at St. Petersburg over the Sunday interval proved a disturbing influence to-day in all the world's markets. The effect was quite as acute in Wall Street as on any other market. Prices here broke all the way from 1 to 2-1/2 points for the prominent active stocks in the first few minutes of trading, and the feverish contest between the opposing tendencies was not decided in favor of recovery until the first hour had passed.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $6,010,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on the day.
